

after February 1, 510 south Park street, Kalamazoo, Michigan.

The Good Templars held a social at Mrs. Charles Wilson's, 421 east Main street, last night. The following program was rendered: Solo, Miss Bessie Wilson; recitation, Ida Rosecrants Nidy; song, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Wilson; reading, Mrs. Campbell; essay, C. S. Ranney. After refreshments were served all left for home at 11 o'clock with the evening well spent.

Papers were served Thursday afternoon in a suit against W. M. Hill, marshal of Galesburg, D. J. Rice, deputy sheriff, and C. J. Corey for alleged false imprisonment in the case of Clifford Carson of this city, who was arrested and temporarily confined for creating a disturbance on the streets of Galesburg after a game of football last November. Damages are placed at $5,000 and E. M. Irish will represent the complainant.

Humane Officer Harper has a sad case of destitution on his hands. It is that of a Holland family who reside on the Ravine road not far from the South Haven railroad. When he called there he found not a covering on the beds and but little of anything at all to eat. Their wants were supplied by benevolent people. The father, who is a celery gardner, has been idle for some time and has a hard time to support his several children.

JOTTINGS.

The weather: Fair, warmer.

The Y. M. C. A. night school sessions began again Thursday.

The circuit court jury has been excused until next Monday.

Go to John Culver for a first-class lunch, north Burdick street.

The gymnasium apparatus is being placed in the St. Luke's parish house.

The Adams Express company has shipped 60 cutters from here this week.

The Henderson-Ames Co. spends $100 a day for postage stamps to send out circulars.

There is too much snow and too cold weather to continue the work on the Eleanor street sewer.

Justice Stafford acquitted William Solomon of Richland, on the charge of stealing hay from Mr. Barrett.

Leon Walker of West Cooper, is nursing a broken arm. Dr. Nancy Sherman reduced the fracture.

The report that Rev. Geo. F. Hunting has resigned as pastor of the First Presbyterian church at Flint, is denied.

Mr. D. B. Merrill won a wager in the shape of some cigars from a democratic friend at Lansing on Mr. Burrows' election.

The Pliny & Watson Co. had an attachment served on C. A. Baker's stock and real estate yesterday through Edwards & Stewart, to collect a debt of $300.

A business meeting of importance of the executive committee of the local union will be held in the Y. M. C. A. parlors this, Saturday, evening at 7:30 o'clock.

J. W. Fulford has received an invitation to be present at the launching of the Northern Steamship company's twin sister to the Northwest, at Cleveland today.

Miss Minnie G. Pember and Frederick A. Wilson are to be married at Woodstock, Vt., Jan. 16. Mr. Pember was for three years connected with Bruen's dry goods store.

Revival services at Simpson M. E. church will be continued each evening next week except Saturday evening. The meetings so far have been attended with profit and success.

The recently elected officers of the Royal Arcanum will be publicly installed next Tuesday evening. A literary and musical program has been arranged and refreshments will be served.

All members of the Industrial school are requested to be present at the meeting this afternoon. Any ladies wishing to take classes will please be present at 2 o'clock. At 4 o'clock the association will meet.

About 11 o'clock last night seven shots were fired in quick succession near the lower college building. The bombardment was reported to the police, but all effort to ascertain the cause of the shooting failed.

Rev. Edward Warren a former pastor of the North Presbyterian church in this city, but now of Paw Paw, has accepted a call to become assistant pastor of the New York avenue Presbyterian church, Washington, D. C.

Hon. A. L. Lakey, first vice president of the National Game and Fish Protective association, will read a paper on the "Proper Uniformity of the Game Laws" at the annual meeting of the association at Chicago next week.

Miss Ratie Cory, who closed her dressmaking shop on Burdick street several weeks ago on account of the illness of her sister, Mrs. Lyod C. Hicks, will accept a position in one of the large cloak stores in Detroit next week.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Gregory Maxwell have issued announcement cards of the marriage of their daughter Jessie Esther to Mr. David Thomas Jones, Wednesday, January 2, 1905, Pentwater, Michigan. At home Tuesdays